CALL FOR NOMINATIONS OF PAUL MARINOS DISTINGUISHED WORLD TOUR LECTURE FOR 2024

All National/Regional Groups, members of Executive Committee and the Council,

The Paul Marinos Distinguished World Tour Lecture of IAEG is officially launched.

The Paul Marinos Distinguished World Tour Lecture is a newly established award by the International Association for Engineering Geology and the Environment (IAEG) to commemorate the contributions in the field of Engineering Geology of the Past President and Honorary President of the Association the late Professor Paul Marinos.

The notification is calling for nominations of Paul Marinos distinguished world tour lecture for 2024. This lectureship provides the opportunity for an Engineering Geologist of outstanding merit who, through research or practice, has contributed to the advancement of Engineering Geology and Environment, to present a series of lectures about Engineering Geology and Environmental Geology in a two-year period to a diverse audience of professionals, academics and students around the world.

Candidates should be members of IAEG. Nomination will normally be made by a National/Regional Group but members of the Executive Committee and Council may also propose individuals. Nominees must not be currently serving on IAEG Executive Committee. The nominee should meet the characteristics listed below:

The Nomination should be sent to the Secretary General before January 14th, 2024.

For more information please refer to Administrative Measures for Paul Marinos Distinguished World Tour Lecture of IAEG.

Best regards,

Professor Faquan Wu
