

Announcement of 2024 Hans Cloos Medal Winner

All members of IAEG community,

I am very pleased to announce that the recipient of 2024 Hans Cloos Medal of IAEG is Professor Niek Rengers, nominated by the Netherlands National Group. The decision is made by the Executive Committee at the online awards selection meeting held on May 30th, 2024. Through the voting by the Executive Committee members on seven candidates, the Executive Committee decided to award the 2024 Hans Cloos Medal to Professor Niek Rengers for his excellent contribution to the development of engineering geology.

Congratulations to Professor Niek Rengers and the Netherlands National Group!

Best regards,

President
Vassilis Marinos

Secretary General
Faquan Wu
