

Announcement of 2024 Marcel Arnould Medal Winner

All members of IAEG community,

I am very pleased to announce that the recipient of 2024 Marcel Arnould Medal of IAEG is Dr. Fred Baynes, nominated by the IAEG Vice President for Australasia. The decision is made by the Executive Committee at the online awards selection meeting held on May 30th, 2024. Through the voting by the Executive Committee members on three candidates, the Executive Committee decided to award the 2024 Marcel Arnould Medal to Dr. Fred Baynes for his significant contribution to the engineering geology profession in the region and his outstanding service to the Association.

Congratulations to Dr. Fred Baynes and the Australian National Group!

Best regards,

President
Vassilis Marinos

Secretary General
